

Jeff Alande St.-Germain, 5
(Jef Ah' lahn San Jur' mane)

Birthday: November 26, 2001

Favorite color: Red

Hobby: Basketball and Soccer

Wants to be: Cook

Jeff-Alande has one brother and two sisters and was abandoned by his father. His mother did not have money to feed him, and she has not visited him since he came to the orphanage in 2005. He was very small and sickly when he came to the orphanage, but he has grown a lot and is progressing very well.

Jeff-Alande is always pleasant and polite, has good manners, is often quiet, and calls Mommy Lynda "Mama" which she loves. He loves to dress up for church and feels proud with his shirt and tie on.

Jeff-Alande loves to go to school and enjoys playing with cars. He has good manners and is always polite. He loves Mommy Lynda's banana pudding, rice, and going to Kaliko Beach.