Marie-Victoire has two brothers at the orphanage, Simon Alexis and Francois Saint-Lot, plus four other brothers. Her father was poisoned by someone who was jealous that he had been given use of a parcel of land to grow a garden. Her mother is very poor and has many health problems; she has no have money to feed Marie-Victoire or send her to school.

Marie Victoire loves to go to school and finished at the top of the class last year at Rescue Children Orphanage. She enjoys working and helping the “mothers” and children at the orphanage. She loves to sing in church and already shows signs of leadership. She helps a lot preparing salad, juice, and helping with dishes and serving food.

Marie-Victoire said she loves the orphanage because she gets to eat three times every day, she gets clothes sometimes, and has food to eat.
