Stevenson and his brother, Rodlin, came to the orphanage in June 2006. He also has three sisters and was one year old when his mother died. The father had no one to watch them while he worked, so he bought them a patty to eat for breakfast each day and left them roaming around in their neighborhood. Stevenson was severely malnourished when he came to the orphanage, but he is gaining weight and also responding well to the discipline.

He instantly bonded with Mommy Lynda, and craves affection. He is quite a little charmer and has beautiful, haunting, big eyes. Because he and Rodlin were allowed to roam the neighborhood while their father worked, it was a challenge for him to adapt to structure, but he is progressing well and has also gained some weight.

Stevenson loves Mommy Lynda's banana pudding, going to Kaliko Beach, and getting to go to school where he is learning English.
